Order thereon Camp No. 2—6 / 7—11 Dated 15-1-08

The formation of the New Extension has been under contemplation from the year 1903; but it was only last year that any active steps were taken in the matter. In May 1907 orders were issued to continue the First cross road of the Chamarajendrapet Extension on to Basavangudi; and for acquiring the lands on both sides of this road for the formation of the New Extension. A Committee was appointed in Government Proceedings No.10303-8/M.L.107-07-13 of the 15th. April last for the allotment of sites The estimate now submitted by the Public Works Department is for opening out roads and constructing drains in the New Extension, which work is in rapid progress. Government are pleased to sanction the estimate therefor for Rs.23000/- the expenditure being, as directed in the Government Order qoute above, met from Municipal Funds and treated as an advance subject to adjustment when final orders are passed as to the source or sources
